shed and had promised to cut it
to size by August 12th.

Rough Plots A letter had been sent to a Mr. Mald re his uncultivated plot (no 51A.) he had been abusive
over the telephone and had threatened
to report the Secretary to the Council.
Mr Stroud reported that if Mr Mald
had put in an effort the Committee would have reconsidered but as
there had been no effort Mr

Strand said he was letting Mr A Smith comment that Mr Malt was in breach of the rules of the Association.

Mr Cutter his plot had been relet.

Mr Johnson was to put his plot in order it had fell into a bad state due to domestic problems.

Secretaries Report.

Mr Gurney had applied to erect a shed on his plot. Committee had approved the site but Mr Gurney had now erected an oversize shed (6' x 6'). Mr Webb stated that we must deal with the fact that it is oversize. Mr Smith (a) suggested that a letter be sent to Mr Gurney pointing out the objections to the size of his shed with a copy to Mr Green of the City Estates as he had objected to it being oversize.

Proposal from Mr A Smith that a letter be sent to Mr Gurney pointing out that his shed size does not conform with the rules in our lease and copy to Mr Green of the City Estates seconded by Mr Hunt and vote unanimous.
