Matters arising Newsletter. This is an outstanding success and was being read
by lots of people village and allottee

Shop.

The bookkeeping was discussed and it had to be done to give the buying committee the stock situation Mr Sivert thought we ought to eliminate what paperwork we can to become more streamlined by and charge it was thought the shop was running O.K.

Wiegning up was difficult and the attendance of Sunday rota committee men Mr A Smith thought Mr Straud ought to be recompensed for travel to pick up goods Mr Strand declined this offer and stated what he did was voluntary.

Secretarys Report

Skip another of these was coming soon.

Horse had broken in to our bottom field as a result the fence has now been strengthened.

Newsletter Secretary thought this was very good and we ought to recompence Mr Siret. All agreed £5.00 to be spent on goods or in cash.

Main Crap potatoes we still have some of these left also shallots.

Main Access road.

There was still no progress with this. Mr A Smith suggested a comment in our newsletter might help. Mr Strand commented that the roadway will be done by Oxford City Council but we will have to wait.
