Theft. Three sheds had been broken into tools taken and damage caused notice to be put up warning of Police patrols Vacant Plots.

A Letter had been received from the Allotments Federation asking if we would allow un-employed people to have vacant plots. After discussion this was ~~was~~ thought not to be a good idea.

Roadways these had now been done at a cost of £3,000 also the carpark. Committee members had also done a good job

New Building

Marley had still not done the rectification work, Mr Day thought it would be a big job. Mr Jandy stated that Marley had not yet been paid so they should be back. It was a council problem. The delay was a nuisance so we could not complete the building membership cards.

Ref. Sunday Trading.

all members should have these. Mr Straud stated that a customer should be asked if they have a card and if not they should be given a form to fill in. It was decided to implement this action. Also to put up a notice telling public that they must be members.

Bad flats.

These belonged to a Mr Webb Mr Kimber and Mr Stone - Mr Stone's rent had now been taken and Mr Kimber was putting in an effort.
