It was reported that there was a falling off in the demand for a No. 1 and the position would have to be closely watched as the balance of cash to hand would not allow much to be spent on improvements. The general health of the club was quite good but there were a few members who would have to be named about the bad state of their plots. Aultis were still about and permission had been given to two people to enter the allotments as short there. He again reported a falling off of trees and felt that orders for labels should be received also see! Jean's which should sell at all well. The committee and ourselves were thankful for their help during the year and hoped that more members would help in the future.
